I want to be the jeweler who first comes into your mind.

HE jeweler's art has always been held in high esteem—it is quite right that it should be considered one of the fine arts, as you will be willing to admit after inspecting the articles in my store.

Did you ever stop to think how much care and thought has been expended on some richly chased gold or silver article, such as a card tray? On all jewelry of the better sort it is necessary that the patterns used should be very pure in design and exquisite in detail.

As much art is displayed in the jeweler's work as in the painter's.

A visit to my store will repay the trouble even if you don't want anything.

FEW WARRANTS ISSUED.

Informations, However, Have Been Filed Against Garbage Violators.

The assertion that Prosecuting Attorney Pugh intended to issue warrants against about 500 persons for failing to observe the new garbage law seems to be greatly exaggerated.

The attorney this morning said that some warrants would be issued, but inquiry at the desk of the warrant clerk elicited the reply that no warrants had been issued up to a late hour.

Inspector George A. Howe, of the health department, who also holds a commission as additional private in the police department, received instructions a week or so ago to enforce by prosecutions in the police court all offenders against the garbage regulations, and in accordance with the order, information was filed in a number of cases.

The violations were principally the provisions requiring the number of the premises to be placed upon the alley gate and that a proper vessel for the deposit of garbage shall be placed at a point in the yard or elsewhere that is accessible to the collector.

The police authority is not alone exercised by Mr. Howe, as the regular force has recently been charged with the responsibility of reporting violations, and a general enforcement of the regulations may be anticipated.

MARYLAND POLITICS.

Lloyd Lowndes Meets Opposition From Labor Organizations.

Baltimore, Aug. 22.—At the meeting of the Federation of Labor last night Mr. Emory J. Mulken offered a resolution opposing the election of Mr. Lloyd Lowndes, the Republican nominee for Governor. The resolution stated that Mr. Lowndes had been unfairly to the miners in Western Maryland during their recent strike, and had in other ways opposed the laboring cause. Mr. Mulken asked the endorsement of the Federation. After some discussion it was resolved to place the matter in the hands of the legislative committee, whose business it is to look up the record of all nominees.

A call for a meeting of the Democratic State central committee at noon, September 4, will be issued by Chairman Hatterly W. Talbot. The meeting will discuss the situation and consider plans for carrying on the campaign.

The prohibition campaign in Maryland will open this afternoon and evening with a picnic and mass-meeting at Towson. Mr. Joshua Levering, prohibition candidate for governor, is expected to speak.

An Unlucky Son. Sarah White, of Leesburg, Va., reported to the police that her son Willie, aged thirteen, had stolen away from her side as she and her two boys slept in the Central Union Mission last night. He had taken $3.50, all the money the poor woman had. She has a ticket to return home, but wants to find her son first.

London Opinion of Olney.

London, Aug. 22.—The Fall Mail Gazette, in an article dealing of the Chinese embargo, says that Secretary Olney may be relied upon to take vigorous action in behalf of the Americans mistreated.

ONLY PETTY OFFENDERS

Light Morning's Work for the Police Court Judges.

Trifling Infractions of City Ordinances and Vague and Disorderly Made Up the Prosecution.

The men who faced Judge Scott this morning were charged with all the misdemeanors in the calendar, and the convicted, acquitted, dismissed and held were about equally divided.

The first to tumble into the prosecution box was Andrew Giddings, the charge being disorderly. It was dismissed. Thomas Stewart, who was charged with being down and walk away from a door of a house on Valley street, figured in a case that was not prosecuted.

Charles King, Henry Taylor, Cooper Brown, Eugene Gray, George Gray, James Henson and Isaac Lucas were pulled on a charge of being disorderly, but the case against them was dismissed. Ida Middleton and Rosa Ford were fined $5 each for disorderly conduct.

The case against George Ridgely and Owen Washington, charged with allowing dripping from a garage car to fall into the street, was not prosecuted. These two men are drivers of cars for the garbage contractor, but the health officer asked the prosecuting attorney not to press the charge, and he complied with this request.

Sherman Sanders was brought before Judge Scott this morning on a charge of vagrancy, and would probably have been convicted if it had not been for the pleading of a lady who took an interest in his career. He was accused by a colored woman, named Mrs. Thos. Shepherd and her husband, John Shepherd, of having entered her yard and using abusive language, and threatening the man of the house with a stick. It was whispered around the court that Sanders had served a term in the "pen," but the lawyer who was supposed to have defended him on that occasion only shook his head when asked about it.

Mrs. Sarah J. Carson appeared as a witness for the defense. She pleaded with tears in her eyes for the man, who, she said, had worked for her at one time. She said that she would be answerable for his good conduct in the future. With profuse thanks and bows the old lady heard that her prayer had been granted and the charge was dismissed.

William Harbous came to town yesterday on a bicycle that belonged to a friend. He could not ride well, but was just able to keep his balance. He was going down H street, when Patrolman William Riley called to him to stop. The boy hadn't been in Washington long, so he tumbled off.

It happened there was no light on bell on the coast guard's vehicle. He appeared in the police court this morning with blood-shot eyes and trembling lip and evidence of having been slept but little in the cold cell. The judge thought he had been punished sufficiently and sentence was suspended.

MORA WAS A CUTAN.

Why the Great Claim May Be Paid at Havana.

Boston, Aug. 22.—General Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish ambassador, was seen at his summer home, in Swampscott, yesterday afternoon and asked why it was insisted that the Mora claim should be paid in Havana.

"I know absolutely nothing about the matter and would not discuss it if I did, as it would be in direct conflict with a fixed policy not to talk on matters which are before the legislation."

"However, if it should be insisted on that the Mora claim be settled in Havana it is because Mr. Mora is a Cuban and that his goods were seized there. But I know nothing about such a condition being imposed."

UNION MEN OUT OF JAIL.

Several of the Companions of Debs Released Today.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Directors William Burns, James Hogan, Martin J. Elliott and L. W. Rogers, of the American Railway Union, were released from the Woodstock, Ill., jail this morning and arrived in Chicago at an early hour.

Sylvester Kellher, secretary, and Director Goodwin were also released, but did not come to this city.

Kellher went to Minneapolis and Goodwin to Winona, to further the work of organization now going on in Minnesota. George W. Howard, the ex-vice president of the union, spent his time in the jail, and was set at liberty today also. Hogan will go to Ogden, Utah, tonight, while Elliott will go to Terre Haute and Rogers to Pueblo this afternoon.

All will engage in the work of actively organizing new divisions of the union. Elliott will speak at Cleveland on Labor Day. His ultimate destination is Jersey City.

President Debs term will not expire until three months more, when he will come to Chicago and re-establish the headquarters now at Terre Haute, in this city. In the meantime Burns will remain in Chicago and push the work in this section of the country.

Director Burnham states that the American Railway Union has an intention of affiliating with the American Industrial Union, the organization founded by ex-Vice-President Howard. "To all questions of this sort," said he, "we have invariably answered that we know nothing about the American Industrial Union. We think we are sufficiently big tub to stand on our own bottom."

Debs' imprisonment has agreed with him and he has gained several pounds in weight.

THE TIMES DAILY WEATHER MAP.

(Prepared at the United States Weather Bureau.)

Explains Note: The above map shows the weather conditions prevailing over the country at 8 o'clock this morning, Eastern time. Solid lines are isobars or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of an inch. Dotted lines are isotherms, or lines of equal temperature, drawn for each degree. Shaded areas are regions where rain or snow has fallen during the preceding twelve hours. The words "high" and "low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. The symbols at the stations show the state of the weather and direction of the wind. Small arrows fly with the wind.

The above map shows a marked general motion in the atmosphere toward the East, and this accounts in part for the cooling from a mixture of strata. Since yesterday the high pressure has moved quite rapidly from Michigan and Pennsylvania, and at the same time it has increased in magnitude. Strong radiation in the center of this high has caused a condensation, which will now give way to a gradual warming for at least forty-eight hours. There is no clear sign of rain for thirty-six hours, though the northwest storm now in North Minnesota may give us rain in its outskirts tomorrow night or Saturday morning.

The area of high pressure has moved from Lower Michigan to Eastern Pennsylvania, increasing in magnitude. A pressure of 30.30 inches is being reported from Harrisburg. A second high pressure is central off the North Atlantic coast. The storm in Eastern Montana has moved to the north of Minnesota. Rain has fallen in the South Atlantic States, the Middle and Upper Missouri and Upper Mississippi valleys.

The following heavy rains, in inches, were reported: During the past twenty-four hours—Tampa, 1.60; Santa Fe, 1.04. The temperature has risen in the late hours in the Lower Missouri Valley, has fallen in the extreme Northwest and remained stationary elsewhere.

THAT ALASKAN BOUNDARY

Father Barnham Gives Vent to Some Lively Opinions About It.

Says the British Are Surveying Upon New Lines and Will Steal United States Territory.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—In an interview last night, Father Barnham, S. J., who has just returned from Alaska, said regarding the boundary between British Columbia and Alaska:

"England has a surveying party up there now running a new line to suit herself."

"These engineers are not on a junking tour to amuse themselves; they are working hard. They have a magnificent equipment and have already accomplished a great deal."

"Unless we have gunpowder, we shall lose an immense slice of Southeastern Alaska. They will steal Glacier Bay and some grand harbors. We have not paid enough attention to this question. Alaska, until a few years ago, used to be called 'Severard's Ice Chest.' Little or nothing was known about the country, and people here did not take enough interest in it to think about it."

"We are cut off," he continued, "by the general congress. We have no right to representation, and what is needed now is a man who will rise up and bring this question to the full magnitude of its importance before the people."

"Arbitration. We always lose in arbitration. We lost in the San Juan question. The sixty-mile limit in the Bering Sea was a mistake. We lost there, too. I suppose the English will decide on a boundary of their own making, and the copy for an Englishman will be Canada will have, too, and there must be arbitration, of course."

"Now, why do the English make this move at this late date, after 146 years? Since 1841 the boundary was settled fairly. The English have a fair share of the territory. It is still on all the English maps, which shows that it was accepted by England through all these years, and to ask for arbitration now on a new line is nothing but a trick."

At Forty-mile Creek, where there never has been trouble of any kind, whatever, a detachment of Canadian police was stationed quite recently, and Father Barnham said he expected serious trouble this coming winter between the American miners and the Canadian officers.

Father Barnham has almost completed a dictionary of the Esquimaux language, having gathered fully 4,000 words of the early Eskimo language. He has a manuscript with him, and also the copy for an Esquimaux catechism in Esquimaux language, both of which he will have printed in the East.

CONFLICTING CORPORATIONS.

They Set on Their Men to Fight Each Other.

McKeesport, Pa., Aug. 22.—The employees of the McKeesport & High Street Bridge Company, and those of the Second Avenue Traction Company were in serious collision this morning, and for a time a riot was imminent. The Bridge Company put a large force of men to work at an early hour this morning on the Second Avenue Traction Company's bridge approaching the Fifth avenue.

Half a score of the tracks were removed before the street railway company could get their men on the scene. A fight followed their arrival, and several men on both sides were injured by flying bricks and paving stones. A car filled with men has been run to the end of the track and is lying there on guard.

The Second Avenue Company are awaiting the arrival of reinforcements from Pittsburg to relay the tracks. More serious trouble is expected when they come. The railway company had the right of way on the street. The city council recently granted an early right to the Bridge Company. The question between the companies in regard to toll has much to do with the trouble.

MORE STRIKES SEEDING.

Philadelphia Inquirer Carpet Weavers Retaining to Work.

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Twenty-two in-gram carpet manufacturers whose weavers are on a strike met at the Manufacturers' Club last evening, and after a lengthy discussion of the strike, resolved to resume work in their mills at once. It was agreed that each firm should make such terms with its operatives as it could to induce the latter to return to work at this time.

A considerable portion of the manufacturers present declared their determination to start up to-day, and to grant the schedule of an increase of 7 1/2 per cent.—demanded by the strikers. The decision of the manufacturers, and the fact that the strikers, remarked, was a virtual acknowledgment of defeat, the strikers getting all they demanded.

Of the 3,000 weavers who struck for the 7 1/2 per cent scale on July 11, about 1,100 had returned to work at the advanced scale up to last night.

HAMLIN WILL NOT TALK.

Says the Case of Spofford is Out of His Hands.

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 22.—A reporter interviewed Assistant Secretary Charles S. Hamlin at Marston last evening over the subject of Librarian Spofford's alleged defection.

"I cannot make any official statement about the subject without a breach of official etiquette," said Mr. Hamlin. "I don't think it would be proper to let any statement leak from me at this time. I am sure that it is in other hands now. I will admit that a searching examination of Mr. Spofford's accounts has been made, and that a bad state of affairs has developed. But the papers in the matter have been transmitted to the President, with recommendations, and if anything is to be said, I should prefer that it come from him."

CLERGYMAN ROBBED.

He and His Wife Bound and House Ransacked.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 22.—Five masked burglars last night entered the home of Rev. W. B. Cochran, pastor of the St. Andrew's Methodist Church, at Rensselaer, his county. They bound the minister and his wife in their bed and then ransacked the house, carrying off gold watches, jewelry, silverware and other valuables worth several hundred dollars. The thieves left the couple bound, in which condition they were found by callers this morning.

GREEN GOODS MAN CAUGHT.

Badly Runned Kansas Man Has a Speedy Revenge.

Easton, Pa., Aug. 22.—Early in July O. Kuhns, of Aitchison, Kan., received green goods, to meet the seller at the Pacific House, Bethlehem, Pa. He did so and was taken to Bound Brook, N. J., by the alleged seller where several other men were met who robbed Kuhns of $300.

He was afterwards taken to New York and given $40 to return to his home. He went home, but returned to New York the following week and reported the case to the postoffice authorities. The matter was placed in the hands of Inspector Anthony Comstock, who with Kuhns has since been watching between New York and Bethlehem for the offenders.

At 9:30 o'clock last night Comstock, at the Pacific House, South Bethlehem, arrested the first man who met Kuhns at Bethlehem. He attempted to escape, but surrendered at the point of the inspector's pistol. Kuhns identified the man, but could not identify three other men who were with him.

The prisoner was brought to Easton, and United States Commissioner Kirkpatrick committed him to prison, under the name of John Doe, in default of $5,000 bail. This morning Inspector Comstock, with the prisoner, started for Moyamensing prison, Philadelphia. The accused refused to give his correct name. Comstock says he is a brother of one of the leading green goods men of the United States.
